EDITORIAL

Welcome to Aurangabad for the 4th International Conference on Recent Advances in Languages, Literature and Social Sciences. We are honoured to be co-hosting this event with New Man Publication, Parbhani.

The present conference - Recent Advances in Languages, Literature and Social Sciences being organized by the Centre for Humanities and Cultural Studies (CHCS) and New Man International Journal of Multidisciplinary Studies (NMIJMS) - provides an opportunity for academic scholars, researchers and policy makers with different backgrounds and experiences to present their researches in the conference and to discuss their ideas and research results, as well as any practical challenge encountered and/or the solutions adopted during their work. The aim of this conference is to facilitate a platform for networking, sharing, publishing and nurturing the potential growth of individual scholar across the globe.

In the present context when most of the social, economic, cultural and political practices are evolving and changing at a greater magnitude, there are many areas where social scientists, critics and linguists have to study and analyze the nature of the change and its impact on human relationship and communication.

The conference attempts to focus on innovative ideas and developments. Thus papers related to areas of Marathi Language and Literature are included in this issue.

The present conference basically aims at bringing the scholars and students together for comprehensive discussion on the topic. It also expects the interactions among researchers, teachers, academicians and students of various institutions with a variety of specializations.

We appreciate the efforts of all the members, peer review committee, editorial team and all the members associated with the conference and proceedings publication

We congratulate all the contributors, delegates and the researchers for unearthing the issues in the field of Languages, Literature and Social Sciences and exploring opportunities in this area. We are sure that the proceedings of the conference would be a valuable source for the researchers in the field of Humanities.

We would like to express our sincere gratitude to the members of CHCS for their outstanding efforts to make this event a grand success.

We heartily congratulate and welcome all the eminent resource persons, delegates, research scholars and students. We wish they would enjoy our company and this grand feast of knowledge.

Dr. Rajaram Sontakke
Prof. Ravindra Ahire
