The establishment of the IQAC is 4th December 2007 in our institute. The first step towards institutionalization and internalization of quality enhancement initiatives. Its success depends on its sense of belongingness and participation in all the activities of the institution. It will not be yet another hierarchical structure or a record-keeping unit of the institution but will be a facilitative and participative unit of the institution. It has the potential to become a vehicle for ushering in quality enhancement through its planned and interventionist strategies to remove deficiencies and enhance quality, as in Quality Circles in industries.

IQAC – Vision

To promote quality culture as the prime concern of Higher Education Institutions through institutionalizing and internalizing all the quality-enhancing and sustaining initiatives taken with internal and external support.

The primary aim of the IQAC is

- g) Sharing of research findings and networking with other institutions in India and abroad.

Functions

Role of Peers in the helping Organization Grow

The IQAC helps the institution in planning and monitoring quality-related activities. It ensures the various stakeholders' and beneficiaries' cross-sectional participation in the institution's quality-enhancement activities. The guidelines given here are only indicative and will help the institutions in their quality-sustenance activities. It is advisable to choose persons from different backgrounds who have earned respect for their integrity and excellence in their teaching and research. Moreover, they should be aware of the ground realities of the institutional environment. They should be known for their commitment to improving the quality of teaching and learning. The management representative should be aware of the institution's objectives, strengths and limitations, and should be committed to its improvement. The local Society/Trust representatives should be of a high social standing and should have made significant contributions to society and to education, in particular.

Composition of IQAC is strictly according to guidelines of MAAC. Revised IQAC is also composed that way. With member from teaching and non-teaching staff, we have some member society, industry, agriculture and students representative. All those members do their best to grow institute. In every meeting the members give valuable suggestions and participate actively. Throughout the year, IQAC monitors curricular, Co-curricular, extra-curricular and extension activities.
